NOTTS. I. 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ -8 $\frac{1}{2}$ DERBYS. I.

Another tense match saw the Notts. team, strengthened by the appearance of Mark Horton for the first time in almost two years, battle to what in the end proved to be a fairly comfortable victory. Notts. raced away to a 6-2 lead but Derbys. then began to pull back and managed to level at 7-7, but in the end the score of 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ -8 $\frac{1}{2}$ was achieved without much difficulty and was probably a little less than the team deserved. The final match in the East Midlands zone is against Hunts and Peterborough on February 19th and should be little more than a formality, in which case Notts. will play in the Midlands semi-final, probably against Warwickshire, on March 19th.

Finally a game from the match which fulfils all the requirements for publication, i.e. (a) the right result (a Notts. win), (b) brevity, (c) no need for the captain to annontate;

CORRESPONDENCE CHESS Distilled from information supplied by John Cooper (County Correspondence Captain):

Having narrowly avoided relegation last year, the county's correspondence team is again playing for the Sinclair Trophy in the 2nd Division of the County and District Correspondence Chess Tournament. The team is as follows;

1. P.B.Dodson	11. Dr. D.A.Toms	21. N.Graham
2. M.J.Alcock	12. S.J.Burke	22. B.M.Hayward
3. Dr. A.N.Walker	13. J.Armitage	23. C.Dunworth
4. T.Guy	14. S.J.Foster	24. N.Hill
5. P.W.Grimsey	15. D.T.K.Lewis	25. S.V.Woodhouse
6. G.Allcock	16. J.Gardener	26. R.J.Stevenson
7. N.Lazonby	17. W.H.Selby	27. S.Ayandeh
8. M.Cooke	18. P.R.Harrington	28. G.J.Murfet
9. J.G.Cooper	19. M.J.Hill	29. A.Morrey
10. C.T.Kent	20. J.Tassi	30. J.Eastwood

John feels that this side is rather stronger than in the past, and hopes that promotion will soon be a possibility. So far, we appear to be entitled to wins by default on boards 1 and 15; games which get started will continue until July 31st. Further developments will be reported here...

UNDER-18 JAMBOREE Neil Graham (in his own words):

How Sutton Chess Club came to be organising an Under-18 team is one of life's little mysteries. Why the organisation ended with me seems to be more explainable - I was the only one who knew anything about it. The omens were good; 15 years ago I was a member of the Notts team that won the event; 10 years ago as Junior Secretary one of the strongest Nottinghamshire sides assembled (Sharp, Rolfe, Richmond, Grimsey, Richmond etc.) won the event by a landslide.

The omens however failed to take account of the non-availability of at least six potential team members (Waddingham, Harrington, Whittaker and so on) and the myriad problems of actually arranging a team and transport. Chris Dunworth and Peter Harrington assisted and eventually a team was put together.

Duly assembled at Gambit off we went. However Gary Clark didn't follow us out of the car park and was never seen again until one hour (almost) after the commencement of play in Birmingham. Vainly waving what passed as a map in his hand, he and his four passengers strode to the board with a 45 minute deficit.

We started badly with the lower boards, complete with time problems, succumbing. However in the later stages things picked up noticeably with wins on the upper boards. Although our score of 5/11 is obviously not a match-winning one it is creditable under the circumstances and we have high hopes of taking a 50% score. None of the five competing counties were outstanding and the only sure thing is that Lincs have taken the wooden spoon. Staffs, Warwicks and Shropshire must await the adjudicator's decision to see who progresses to the next stage.

The one regret is that no-one in the Association is prepared to run a County Under-18 team full time. We clearly have the potential for a Championship team but we need someone to realise this by organising some more matches.

MORE FOR THE JUNIORS:

Entries for the Under-16 and Under-18 Championships are a bit sparse at the moment (i.e., there haven't been any). The events are taking place on Sunday March 6th, so there's not much time remaining for this. Refer to Bulletin Number 3 for details.

Also a bit sparse...

... are entries for the Midland Individual Championships, being held in Derby (March 25th-27th). Details from Neil Graham or from club secretaries.

AND FINALLY...

How about some of you local stars annotating a game of yours for inclusion in subsequent editions of this bulletin. I can be bothered to type up anything that you can be bothered to write down. And if nothing turns up I might just take Ron Clunie's advice (offered when I told him there was only one game for inclusion this month); "Oh well - publish some of your own then..." That's a threat...

This bulletin is edited by Tim Lane on behalf of the Nottinghamshire Chess Association. Could material for the March edition reach me by Tuesday, March 8th; in the unlikely event of there being no hold-ups, the edition will then be able to go out in the following week. Apologies for the lateness of the January bulletin - this was due to circumstances beyond our control (nearly...).

Tim Lane,
