Notts. I. 14½-4½ Northants. I. with one adjudication

The most remarkable aspect of this match was that twenty Notts. players actually turned up to play in it. After the usual troubles involved in organising the team two players dropped out on the morning of the match (one of whom I have still not heard from). A frantic round of phone calls produced one replacement, Steve Woodhouse (thanks Steve!) but no more, so unfortunately the captain had to play (unfortunately for him if you see the results!). After this, apart from a slight scare when Graham Waddingham was late, the match got under way smoothly.

As for the match itself the result was never in doubt with several quick wins giving Notts. a 4-1 lead by tea. Tony Dempsey's first game for Notts. was a dour struggle which was sent for adjudication with only slight chances for a win. Graham Waddingham was always under pressure from the current British Under-21 champion whilst Dave Marchant won his first county game by a typical Queen's Gambit minority attack.

Two games from the match: the first my game (even though I lost) which shows the consequences of a slight mistake in the Sicilian Dragon (19...Rec8 was better than 19...b5 although 18...b5 may have been better still). If anyone can find a better defence later please don't tell me!

The second game is Andrew Rolfe's about which there is little to say.

COUNTY SECOND TEAM Alan Morrey reports:

Notts. II. vs. Leics. II., Ravenshead, 26th November 1983.

The Notts. II. vs. Leics. II. match started disastrously with no fewer than four members of the home team failing to turn up without notice. Whether this acted as a spur to the team is questionable, but they then proceeded to win the actual boards played by 9½-7½. However a three board default gave the match to Leicester by the closest of margins, 10½-9½. What might the result have been had we played a full team?

One piece of information gleaned at the match was that Leicestershire have beaten Derbyshire. Our way to the semi-finals, therefore, is in our own hands; we must defeat Lincolnshire and then Northants. in two away fixtures in the New Year. Provided all players turn up, this should not be difficult.

With regard to the question of defaulting boards, it is bad enough to default on away matches, but particularly embarrassing to default on home matches. At least three of the missing players in the Leicester match were given incorrect information as to the venue. It is suggested that all players know the home phone number of their respective team captain, as in the above instance a phone call to the captain's home would have revealed the correct venue for the match.

(The telephone numbers of our three team captains are given in the list of officers of the Association, elsewhere in this edition of the bulletin - Ed.)

SPECIAL EVENTS

Team Lightning Championships David Holmes...

The county team lightning championships were held on Tuesday 22nd November at Gambit Chess Club. A very disappointing entry of only eight teams (from Gambit, Sutton, West Bridgford, University Staff and Chessnuts) contested a seven round all-play-all competition and the winners were, not surprisingly, West Bridgford with 23½/28 followed by University Staff with 20½/28. The winners of the board prizes were: Bd. 1 Andrew Rolfe (7/7); Bd. 2 Paul Hare (6/7); Bd. 3 Chris Dunworth (6½/7); Bd. 4 Russell Dicks and Dragan Milosavljevic (both 6/7).

Notts. Under-14 Championship 1983/4 Doug Sandford...

This tournament (organised by Nomads) was held at the Lenton Community Centre on Sunday, 30th October, and attracted a disappointing entry of only ten. However, it did result in a very close and exciting contest in which, at the end of four rounds of a 'Swiss', six players were left with chances of securing the title.

The fifth round was decisive and the eventual winner was Simon Wilson (Nomads) with a score of 4/5. Joint second were Raymond Tarling (Nottingham High School) and Simon Neal (Nomads), both with a score of 3½/5.

The County Championship...

...is under way once again, in its usual format of a one-round-a-month Swiss tournament. In the first round, whole points were scored by Messrs Alcock, Dempsey, Lazony, Burke, MacCauley, Lewis, Eames, Wagenbach, Selby, and Hayward; half points by Messrs Ayandeh and Morrison; and nothing by Messrs Lane, Dean, Stevenson, Gwynne, Oldham, Todd, Padvis, Noonan, Calvert, and Squire.

This bulletin is edited by Tim Lane on behalf of the Nottinghamshire Chess Association. Any contributions that are likely to be of interest to Notts. chess players are welcome; the next edition is intended to go out in the week commencing on January 16th, so could material for inclusion reach me not later than Tuesday, January 10th.

Tim Lane,
