Bulletin 3

FEBRUARY 1986

IMPORTANT

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL CLUB SECRETARIES AND TEAM CAPTAINS

Will you please note that the Records Secretary has moved. All result cards and other correspondence should now be sent to:-

Mr. G.T. Gibson

Nearly 50 Notts Chess Association members have subscribed to CHESSFORCE so far - but this is not nearly enough to fund the many events we have planned. The Association's General Meeting gave the go ahead without dissent for this year of chess events in 1986 - it is now up to you the individual players to support the many events we have prepared. Those clubs who have no Chessforce members whatsoever, I hope will now give us the support we need to make this a great year of chess in Nottinghamshire.

January event :

CHESSFORCE opened its calendar with a simultaneous display by international chessmaster Geoff Lawton of Leicester. 25 players were originally booked to play Geoff but in the end 19 opponents faced the I.M. who succeeded in winning 18 games without due difficulty and losing one to Marcel Taylor (Radcliffe & Bingham).

This was followed by an "Any Questions" panel consisting of Geoff Lawton, Stewart Reuben (BVF Director of Congress Chess) and Neil Beasley (MCCU) with County Association President Neil Graham in the chair. An audience of about 20 were given good entertainment value with questions ranging from "how do I increase my grading" to "Is Kasparov really the best player ever". The panel, which also included Allan Richmond after Stewart Reuben left to catch the train, fielded all the questions and a good night was had by all.

February : Quickplay Event - all clubs should have been circulated

March :- Junior month - once again circulars are out via the County Junior Sec.

April : Congress forms are now available.

MIDLAND COUNTIES

20. A. Burgess	A - A	W. Murray

Result $14\frac{1}{2} - 4\frac{1}{2}$ (1 Adj.)

Our first home match of the season saw a somewhat depleted Notts. team take both points from Northants. For a long time it appeared that a close result was on the cards, the score at tea being $1\frac{1}{2} - \frac{1}{2}$ to Notts. However, Notts. took command in the second session to win comfortably in the end. The only undecided game is that of Alan Burgess, who is claiming a draw, and my thanks to him for playing at very short notice when Mark Thomas had to withdraw.

One of Notts. first wins was the following brevity by Chris Dunworth.

White: C.N. Dunworth

Black: C.E. Fellows

1. d4	Nf6	8. Nxe4	d5	15. c3	Qd7
2. Nc3	g6	9. Qd2	Kh7	16. Bxh6	Bxh6+
3. e4	d6	10. h4	dxe4	17. g5	Bxg5+
4. Bg5	Bg7	11. 0-0-0	Bg4	18. hxg5+	Kg7
5. Bc4	h6	12. Qe3	Bxe2	19. f3	Na5
6. Bf4	0-0	13. Qxe2	F5	20. Rh7+	Resigns
7. Nge2	Nxe4	14. g4	Nc6

Notts. 1 $9\frac{1}{2} - 9\frac{1}{2}$ Derbys. 1 + (1 Disputed Game)

The Adjudications in this match went 2 - 1 in Notts. favour (wins for Dave Nicholls and Steve Woodhouse, loss for Chris Dunworth) leaving the score at $9\frac{1}{2} - 9\frac{1}{2}$. The match will now be decided in the committee room, when Notts. appeal against the decision to call Ken Morrisons game void. The dispute is over a claim by Derbyshire for a draw by repetition.

The final match in the Zonal stage, at home against Lincolnshire 1, will be played on 15th February when, hopefully, we shall be able to maintain our winning ways and clinch a place in the Knockout Competition.

Steve Burke.

WELL DONE MARCEL!

Here is the score of Marcel Taylor's game against Geoff Lawton, with annotations by the winner.

As Marcel modestly says 'The game is hardly a masterpiece but it was good enough on the day'. This you can judge for yourselves - what is not in doubt is that he succeeds where all others failed!

WHITE: Geoff Lawton

BLACK: Marcel Taylor

RUY LOPEZ - Closed Variation

1. e4

He played this against everyone.

1.	e5
2. Nf3	Nc6
3. Bb5	a6
4. Ba4	Nf6
5. O-O	b5
6. Bb3	Be7
7. Re1	O-O
8. c3	d6
9. h3	Be6

All fairly standard. The analysis in MCO shows this variation leading to a draw.

10. d4 Bxb3

Eliminates the Lopez bishop but leaves Black with a bad bishop and a backward pawn on an open file.

11. ab Re8

Indirectly putting pressure on the e pawn.

12. c4	ed
13. Nxd4	Nxd4
14. Qxd4	Qd7

Nd7 followed by Bf6 may be better.

15. Nc3

The knight eyes the d5 square. The threat of this move causes a lot of trouble (for me) for most of the game.

15.	Bf8?
16. Bg5	Be7
17. Rad1	h6
18. Bh4	Qc6
19. Rd3	bc

I could not think of a good move here; perhaps by the time Geoff comes round again...?

20. bc Rab8

A threat.

21. Rf3

Threat ignored.

21. Qb6

If the queens are exchanged White's attack is diminished.

22. Qd3

No thanks.

22. g5

This weakens the king-side but does reduce the pressure on the knight.

23. Bg3 Qxb2

I now have a passed pawn!

24. Qd4

Threatening the knight.

24. Qb6

25. Qd2

See move 22. But 25. Qxb6 bc 26. Bxd6 Bxd6 27. Rxf6 Bf8 28. Rb1 looks good.

25.	Qc5
26. Rc1	Rb4
27. Rf5	Qb6?
28. c5

Geoff misses the win. 28. Rxf6! Bxf6 29. Nd5 Qd4 30. Nxf6+ Qxf6 31. Qxb4.

28. Rb2

Whenever I could I 'attacked' the I.M.

29. Qd3 dc

The above combination no longer works. I now have three passed pawns.

30. Be5

More pressure on the knight. 30. Na4 can be answered by 30...Rb3.

30. Rb3

This pins the knight and moves the rook off the bishops diagonal.

31. Qe2	Qe6
32. Qc2	Reb8
33. f4

Too slow, and the rook & bishop are blocked in

33. Rb2

34. Qd3

I can see a combination! If the Queen can be deflected from defending the e4 pawn, then Nxe4 followed by Qxf5

34. c4
 35. Qg3 Nxe4
 36. Nxe4 Qxf5
 37. Rxc4

I had expected 37. Bxb2 but after 37...Qxe4 the bishop is hanging & Whites attack is over.

37. R8b3

The Queen has no safe escape squares, so...

38. Nc3

The knight is pinned again.

38. Bd6

The Bishop is an active piece; I am material ahead and the c7 pawn is protected.

39. Bxd6 cd

40. fg

Sets a trap. 40...Qxg5 41.Rg4

40. hg
 41. Rc8+?? Qxc8
 42. Qxg5+ Kf8
 43. Qh6+ Ke8
 44. Ne4 Qe6

Stops the Nxd6+ fork.

45. Qh8+ Kd7

Escaping to the queenside.

46. Qa8 Rxc2+

Forces mate.

47. Kxg2 Qxh3+

48. Kf2 Qh2+

Mate next move so....

49. Resigns.

NOTTINGHAM CONGRESS 1986

This year's Congress will be held at County Hall on April 18, 19 & 20. Club Secretaries will be receiving entry forms for this event in the very near future. Please ensure that the Congress is as widely publicised as possible within your club.

POET'S CORNER

IF THE CAP FITS ----

If you forget to stop your clock
 You're liable to receive a shock.
 Your time will slowly tick away
 Although it's not your turn to play
 And, though it seems an awful shame,
 Your flag goes down—you've lost the game.
 Most players would not win this way
 "You haven't pressed your clock" they'd say.
 But, just a few (it's sad but true)
 Think "I'm all right Jack, B you!"
 Leslie Hesbrook

The Death of a King

Set up the pieces, let the game begin,
 The clock ticks on and may the best man win.
 The King is weak, which chauvinists find strange;
 The Queen admits no limit to her range.

There is no guarantee of gain or loss.
 A pawn is pushed, a bishop slants across,
 A rook advances from its corner square:
 Across the board the flames of battle flare.

No piece can hope to halt the vaulting knight,
 Which leaps from white to black, from black to white.
 It laughs at obstacles, which goes to prove
 Nothing can hinder a determined move.

The trap is closing and the cry of 'check'
 Implies the King might get it in the neck.
 The game is over when 'checkmate' is said:
 In Persian terms, shah mat - 'The King is dead'.

In chess the players, as in love or life,
 Hope to emerge as victors from the strife,
 Though the defeated may be moved to say
 With Burns, the best laid schemes gang aft a-gley.
