CHESS

ASSOCIATION

Bulletin 2

JANUARY 1986

GAMES WANTED!

In the last bulletin, I indicated that I would like to include a games section in future issues. This particular issue has two games but one of them was played nearly 40 years ago!

The match results section of this bulletin represents about 550 individual games - surely amongst these there are a dozen or so that are worthy of publication?

If you have a particularly interesting game played this season, whatever your grade, please send it to me, or give it to your club secretary to pass on to me, and I will try to include it in the next issue.

I never thought chessplayers to be that modest about their own efforts!!

Ian Brown,

MCCU NEWSLETTER

With this bulletin you will be receiving just 1 copy of the MCCU newsletter. It is expected that in future there will be more copies available for distribution to each Club as well as officers of the Association.

By the time that you receive this bulletin, all clubs should have circulated to each of their members, a letter from Neil Graham, Chairman of "Chessforce" outlining the events planned for 1986 and also urging all chess players within the County to contribute financially towards making 1986 a very special year for chess in Nottinghamshire.

IF YOU HAVE NOT HAD A LETTER PLEASE SEE YOUR CLUB SECRETARY.

Neil is also collecting Campbell's Soup "Superheroes" labels on behalf of Chessforce, and has asked that chessplayers switch to this brand in order to collect the labels. Please try to obtain as many of these labels from friends, workmates, acquaintances etc., as possible, and then forward them on to Neil.

FULL DETAILS OF EACH MONTH'S EVENTS WILL BE INCLUDED IN FUTURE BULLETINS

I have been asked to publicise the work of a gentleman in Mansfield who makes and sells chess sets and boards.

The sets that he makes are the LEWIS No. 1, the PEKING, the CLASSIC and the MANDARIN. The sets are painted and finished in copper, bronze, gold or silver wax and sell for under £20. Other sets including the STAUNTON can also be obtained.

If you are interested please contact:-

Mr. W.D. Brooks,

If you wish to see examples of Mr. Brooks work, he is having 2 displays in the Mansfield Area. The first is in the window of the Nottingham Building Society, Stockwell Gate, Mansfield from 4th to the 15th January and the second is in Mansfield Library, Westgate, Mansfield, for the whole of February.

COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

Thirtyfive of the County's strongest players competed in the County Championship over the weekend of 29th November to 1st December at Rushcliffe Leisure Centre. The contest was extremely hard fought with only Paul Hare having won all his games after three rounds. After round four the previous years joint winners Mike Alcock and Steve Burke were both out of contention with $2\frac{1}{2}$ points out of 4. Going into the final round Paul Hare was still in the lead with $4\frac{1}{2}$ points from 5 games. Pairing for the final round was as follows:-

M. H. Barnes (4)	v	P.D. Hare ($4\frac{1}{2}$)
J. M. Emms (4)	v	C.N. Dunworth (4)

Both of these games were won by white leaving John Emms and Michael Barnes as joint winners. County Champion as a result of sum of opponents scores was John Emms mainly because Michael Barnes had taken a half point bye in round one. Prizes were presented by Richard Turton of Spicer and Pegler who had sponsored the event for the first time. Mr. Turton said "They were pleased to sponsor brains not brawn for a change as physical sport receives plenty of support."

An interesting game from round three of the competition:-

REMEMBER NOTTINGHAM 1946?

Whilst it is true that this year sees the 50th anniversary of the great 1936 International Tournament in Nottingham, maybe a few readers will have forgotten, or even never knew that Nottingham also had the distinction of hosting the first post-war British Championship. That was back in the days of rationing, de-mob suits and homes fit for heroes. Maybe the day-to-day fabric of life was tough, but maybe also, people were different then...a world weary of war, and eager for friendship, co-operation, and community spirit.

It was also the time when Britain had no grandmasters of its own, anathema to today's infant prodigies reared on the exploits of Miles, Nunn, Keene and company. However, the field for the first post-war domestic Championship did include some fine players - Alexander, Golombek, Winter, Milner-Barry etc., and surely one would have expected the eventual winner to have come from this group. Instead, a young, and since his triumph, relatively unsung hero emerged in the shape of R.F.Combe. Not only did Combe beat Alexander in the very opening round, but he went on to win the title with the score of +7, =2, -2. Combe could possess a very incisive style when he felt inclined, and I commend the following victory gained with the black pieces against another combative player, A.R.B.Thomas, to your attention. The final attack is very pleasant; shortcomings in the annotations alas, will stem from me.

British Championship, Round 2, August 1946
Venue: University College, Nottingham.

WHITE: A.R.B. Thomas BLACK: R.F.Combe Benoni Counter Gambit

1.	d4	Nf6
2.	g3	c5
3.	d5	g6
4.	Bg2	Bg7
5.	e4	d6
6.	Nc3	O-O
7.	Nge2	Bd7
8.	a4

White's next few moves are directed against black's intended ...b5, so Combe directs operations against the King's wing.

8.		Qc8
9.	Nf4

Effective, but one of those moves that doesn't 'feel' right somehow. The next phase is bound up with black's renewed efforts to play ...b5. He achieves this, but Thomas uses his time to obtain a solid central preponderance.

9.		Na6
10.	O-O	Nc7
11.	Qe2	a6
12.	a5	Rb8

Played nearly 40 years ago, this game has a remarkably fresh appeal.

13.	Nd1	Ng4
14.	c4	b5
15.	axb6 ep	Rxb6
16.	Nd3	Ne5
17.	Nxe5	Bxe5
18.	Ra2	e6

Black loses no time in attacking White's centre before he can advantageously prepare f4, e5 etc.

19.	f4	Bd4+
20.	Be3	Bxe3+
21.	Qxe3

It will not be easy for White to organise play against the dark squares around the Black King. His own dark-squared bishop has gone, his KB is somewhat restricted, and the b2 pawn is not in the best of health.

21.		exd5
22.	cxd5

Much more combative than exd5, but Thomas still has hopes of organising an eventual e5 himself.

22.		Re8
-----	--	-----

23. Qc3 Qd8!
 If black allowed Qf6, he would probably have to go in for a queen exchange. Combe avoids this possibility because he wants to play for the win.

24. Re1 Nb5
 25. Qd2 Nd4
 26. e5 Qb8

White has achieved e5, but black's queen manoeuvres put the white position under pressure.

27. exd6 Rxd6
 28. Nc3 Bh3!!

A Bolt from the blue! The white bishop must stand its ground. 29. Bh1 leaves the King uncomfortably placed, whilst 29. Be4? is a straightforward blunder.

29. Ne4

Thomas again finds a combative reply, but black is prepared to sacrifice temporarily in order to break into the White camp.

29. Bxg2
 30. Kxg2 Rxe4!
 31. Rxe4 Qb3!

The opened b-file at last yields dividends. Black's concluding attack is very impressive. The squares a2, d5, and f3 are all suddenly vulnerable.

32. Rxd4

White cannot hold the material, so he removes the unpleasant knight. Clearly, if 32. Ra3 Qxd5, followed by f5 wins quickly.

32. cxd4
 33. Ra5 Rxd5
 34. Rxa6

34. Rxd5 Qxd5+; 35. Kf2 etc., would leave white in a very passive position.

34. Qb7!
 35. Ra3 Rb5 dis.+
 36. Kh3

The tournament book gives 36. Kg1 Rxb2; 37. Ra8+ Qxa8; 38. Qxb2 Qe4 as winning for black. Obviously 37. Qxd4? allows mate at once. Mind you...

36. Rh5+
 37. Kg4 f5 mate

Move 31 apart, Black's queen never left its first or second rank, but standing 'fianchettoed' as it does, seems to be directing operations from afar.

A very peaceful and pleasant year to chessplayers wherever they may be.

20.	A. Beaumont	0 A - A 1	S.V. Woodhouse

Result $8\frac{1}{2} - 7\frac{1}{2}$ (4 Adj.)

Following our defeat against Leicestershire, it was essential to win this match to have any realistic chance of qualifying for the later stages of the competition. Although the Notts. team was a little stronger than the one which faced Leics., a tight result was expected, in view of our narrow victory last season, and this turned out to be the case.

Unfortunately, I was unable to attend the match myself. However the results show the domination of Notts. upperboards, whilst the landslide on boards 14 - 18 left Derbys. leading by one point at adjudication, with four games still to be decided.

We are reasonably confident that all three adjudications will go our way, and we expect a similar decision in the dispute. This arose over a claim by the Derbys. player that he had a draw by repetition, and resulted in a prolonged argument involving several players. Fortunately, I haven't had any reports of the protagonists coming to blows, and the matter is now in the hands of the tournament controller.

To conclude, I would like to thank Tony Dempsey for stepping in at the last moment, for this match, and also confirm that Ron Clunies adjudicated game against Leics. was drawn, making the final score Leics I 15 - 5, Notts I. Hopefully we shall have an easier time in the New Year, when we play host to Lincolnshire and Northants, and provided Leics. defeat Derbys. we should progress to the Knockout stages as we have done consistently in recent years.

Steve Burke.

Result 11 - 5

The II team season has successfully progressed with two further satisfactory results, defeating Northants by 11 boards to 5 and Derbyshire by a similar margin. With only the match against Leicester on 1st February we are now assured of a place in the M.C.C.U. II Semi-finals on 1st March irrespective of that result. The 1984/5 M.C.C.U. II final held over from last season will now take place on 14th December at Spondon, Derby. Our opponents are Staffordshire II who having defeated Leicester II to reach the final must be regarded as a formidable challenge.
