EDITORIAL

This is the third bulletin of the season and although its issue is slightly later than I had hoped I am still confident that six or seven bulletins will be issued by the end of the season. This means that I am on constant lookout for news, articles and games. I therefore thank the main contributors to this bulletin namely Len Morrell, Alan Morrey, Frank Noonan, Allan Richmond, Malcolm Thompson and Andrew Walker. I am disappointed however that I have not had reports on the following events despite a number having been promised:

1. Notts Junior Championships
2. Notts County Championship
3. County Second Team matches
4. Grantham one-day quickplay Congress
5. Sutton Chess club matches in National and Midlands competitions.

Again I would ask all officers of the Association to let me have details of forthcoming events and a report of these events otherwise I think you will soon become rather bored of hearing about West Bridgford Chess Club.

Finally, may I take this opportunity of wishing everyone a very merry Xmas, a prosperous and successful 1988 (except of course if playing against me).

P.D.H.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

This has been totally dominated by the Kasparov-Karpov World Championship match. This is now reaching an exciting conclusion. With just a few games remaining the players are tied. If the final result is a 12-12 draw, then Kasparov retains the title.

BRITISH NEWS

The allegations made by Tony Miles and mentioned in the previous bulletin were against Raymond Keene. Keene has resigned all his posts with the B.C.F. giving as his reason his general dissatisfaction with British chess management. He also expressed sympathy with Graham Lee who had resigned earlier as B.C.F. Secretary. Keene denied that the allegations made by Miles had anything to do with his decision to resign. He is to set up a rival Chess Association to the B.C.F.

From the report in the M.C.C.U. Newsletter it appears that before Keene resigned he was suspended by the B.C.F. and an independent enquiry set up to look into the allegations. The worry is that if these allegations are true then other officials may be involved. With Keene's resignation however I do not know if the independent enquiry will go ahead.

GRADING LISTS

Brian Hayward, the Notts Grading Officer, informs me that the B.C.F. are having difficulties in processing the grading data on their computer. It is unlikely therefore that the grading lists will be available before the New Year (Is this another example of the B.C.F. providing a poor service for grass roots players? PDH)

HOME NEWS

Although I have not been sent a formal report of the Arthur Jones Quickplay Tournament at Grantham, as Controller I am at least able to report the winners of the main section. The winner was Michael Barnes (West Bridgford) with 5.5/6, second was Colin Crouch (Durham) 5/6 and amongst the players sharing third place with 4.5/6 were Duncan Frost (West Bridgford), Kevin Simpson (Mansfield) and Paul Kemp (ex Notts now Cambridge). Kevin Simpson should have finished second but in the final round let an easily won position against Colin Crouch slip to a draw.

Was this a slimmers' chess competition or an engraver's mistake on the trophies? It was annoying, that's for sure.

At 7.15 pm it looked as though I was going to be playing Tina (kindly helping with the admin.) for the trophies but by 7.30 pm there was a Gambit full of players - relief! Not quite as many as last year, 56 as opposed to 64, but with the present depression in Notts. Chess (not helped by the zilch coverage so far on TV of the World Championship), the turnout was good. Fourteen teams would at least ensure a decent competition.

Dick Edwards from West Bridgford brought the equipment along even though he wasn't playing, and when we got there it was all set up - thanks Dick and also Dorothy from Gambit.

What happened then!?

Well, in a nutshell (that's a laugh) Ron Clunie lost his first team lightning game in 16 (or for 3 years) - he jokingly put it down to age but could always change his name to Viktor K. Neil Graham started everything off with an electrifying call to attention - only those deafened failed to listen. The controller was admonished by George (second name withheld but it begins with W) for being too lenient (soft) on the procrastinators but after some stern warnings the buzzer (well, signal) was adhered to more precisely. Mansfield got off to their usual pathetic start (0-4) - I can say this not only because it's true (although they picked up later) but because I play for them and they are at liberty to kick me out. There was a determined attempt to sell copies of The Year Book of Chess - a snip at £4.50 - which every club, at least, should have a copy of (contact Neil Graham). The controller got an unexpected laugh when his "pint of bitter, and orange juice and lemonade" could be heard clearly by a hushed and concentrating hall but was not as amusing as the telephone suddenly ringing which led to some premature moves. Alan Richmond tried to donate his wallet but he was persuaded to take it back when we found there was nothing in it. The evening ended with Cliff from Sutton giving us some Scott Joplin on the piano which went down well with his team mates waiting to get away - "Cliff! Get off that piano."

Stop all that waffle and get on with the results pal. OK, OK.

RESULTS

No guesses for who won the Team Trophy - BRIDGFORD! With a reasonable score of 22 out of 24. Alright, an excellent score but still not as good as their near perfect 23 out of 24 in 1985 but better than their 19 out of 24 in 1986.

Sutton I came second with 16 and Gambit I came third with 13½.

The Board Trophies were as follows:-

Board 1 - M. Barnes (W. Bridgford) with 6 out of 6 - not bad for Board 1!

Board 2 - J. Tassi (Bulwell) with 6 out of 6 - not bad for Board 2.

Board 3 - G. Halfpenny (Sutton I and the Clunie slayer) with 6 out of 6 - no complaints here either.

Board 4 - D.J. Nicholls (W. Bridgford) with 5½ out of 6 - a draw can be excused I think.

In alphabetical order the teams competing were:- Bulwell, Defaulters, Dolly Mixtures, Gambit I, Gambit II, Mansfield, Nomads, Oxclose A, Oxclose B, Radcliffe and Bingham, Sutton I, Sutton II, Sutton III, West Bridgford.

Many thanks to all the teams which took part, to Gambit for hosting it as usual and to Tina and Neil for doing the draw so quickly and efficiently.

NEXT LIGHTNING

Don't forget the Individual Lightning is on Tuesday, 16th of February 1988, 7.30 pm at Gambit.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

Again, although I have not been sent a full report of this year's event, I do know who won it. Five players tied for first place! With 5/6 were Michael Barnes (West Bridgford), Steve Burke (Sutton), Chris Dunworth (now Warwick University), Allan Richmond (West Bridgford) and Graham Waddingham (now Birmingham University). The prize money was shared but the title went to Chris Dunworth on sum of opponents scores tie break. It was pleasing to see both Chris and Graham returning to Nottingham to play and we all hope to see them both playing for the County Team in the near future: they are sorely missed!

I understand however that one incident marred the weekend. In the final round Allan Richmond complained about the pairings which he said were wrong and went on to accuse the Controller, Andrew Erridge of showing bias to the junior players - Andrew is the Notts Junior Secretary. Jenny Waddingham (Tournament Organiser) then invited Neil Graham (a B.C.F. arbiter) to review the pairings which he did. A number of pairings including Allan Richmond's were altered. This incident poses a number of questions: Was Allan Richmond entitled to demand a redraw? Many people would say not as the Controller's decision is normally regarded as being final. The system adopted for making the draw was, I understand, a seeded Swiss system. Whilst not wishing to go into the actual mechanics behind the system, it gives the Controller little discretion over who should play whom. It is acceptable where prizes are not at stake to keep players from the same club apart. It is the certainty of the system which enables a draw to be challenged and mistakes can happen when there is little time to do the draw. With regard to the accusation that Andrew favoured the juniors, I do not wish to comment despite receiving lengthy correspondence on the subject from an obviously irate and upset Allan Richmond.

NOTTS JUNIORS AT BRITISH LIGHTNING CHAMPIONSHIP

Len Morrell took a team of four juniors to the British Lightning Championship (move every ten seconds) held in Liverpool on 14 November. The team had an average age of only 12 years 11 months and were the youngest team competing. After early round setbacks they recovered well to finish on 12/28 and 24th out of the 34 teams competing. They also came second in the Under 140 category. Whilst they all played well there was an outstanding performance on Board 1 by Jonathon Parker who scored 5/7 against opponents with an average grade of over 160. The team was : 1. Jonathon Parker (Radcliffe & Bingham); 2. Steven Joseph; 3. Matthew Kennedy; 4. Steven Maxwell (all West Bridgford). Results were : RD.1 0/4 v Atherton A 2. 0/4 v Prescott 3. 1/4 v Stockport 4. 4/4 v Rochdale 5. 2/4 v Formby. 6. 3/4 v Barrow. 7. 2/4 v Liverpool A

STOP PRESS

Kasparov retains the world crown

In a dramatic finale to the World Championship Karpov won game 23 to take a 12-11 lead leaving Kasparov to win the final game to level the scores and so retain his title. The 24th game seemed to be heading for a draw but Karpov left himself short of time and lost a pawn just prior to the adjournment. This proved decisive and enabled Kasparov to retain the World title which he took from Karpov in 1985. The next World Championship match is due in 1990. What odds on K v K again?

CORRESPONDENCE COLUMN

Well at least I had one letter!

This was from Andrew Walker on the vexed topic of the benefits of the B.C.F. for grass roots chess players, a subject on which I am sure that we shall hear much more in the coming year.

You ask for comments on the BCF. Many years ago, I was chatting to Ray Keene and Bill Hartston [namedropping!—but it was before they were famous]. They argued vehemently that the BCF was doing a good job; strong players like RDK and WRH were receiving sponsorship, going to tournaments, getting experience, etc. The money starting to trickle into chess was enabling more players to turn professional, standards at the top were rising, and the benefits would spread down to all players. I argued that this was all very well, but the grass-roots (to coin a phrase) were being neglected, and creating an elite of favoured masters [the very notion of having a British grand-master still seemed very remote!] might well serve only to alienate the ordinary club and county players. I suppose we have all turned out to be correct.

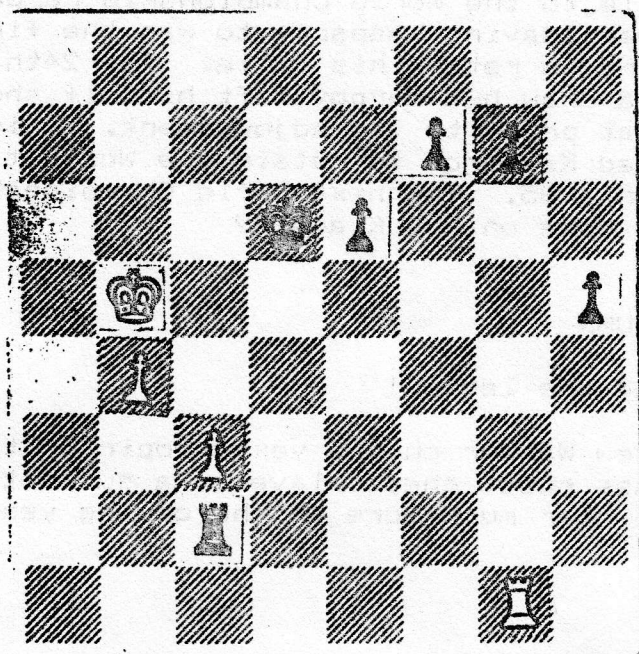

Standards have risen, and we all bask in the reflected glory of recent international successes. There is a certain amount of money in the game, and the weekend tournament players can play as much competitive chess as they could wish. And yet....

And yet, players are not joining clubs, leagues are in decline, it's hard to raise county teams, and to persuade players to take on the all-important administrative roles. Perhaps there are reasons beyond our control. Home computers make more complaisant opponents. It is a drag to traipse out to Sutton or Derby for a League match on a foggy or snowy winter evening, or to Northampton (thereby losing virtually all of a Saturday) for a not-terribly-exciting county match. But the BCF does nothing to help, and there are so many ways it could.

Let me elaborate. First of all, the BCF does indeed do things, even for Notts. There was a grant for the CHESSFORCE tournament; some juniors have been sponsored; we got money to advertise the London (of course!) KK match. But these were all for 'chess-at-the-top', and did nothing for the clubs. I do not believe that the BCF has ever done anything 'for me', or, I guess, for the vast majority of you, the readers. The BCF is happy to take our money, but such returns as we get—the grading list, county match organisation, etc.—owe much to the individuals who do the work and almost nothing to the BCF.

Well, that's the criticism; but what should the BCF do? Answer: They should give us something. A copy each of the BCF Yearbook would be a start. With such an expanded print run, the actual marginal cost to the BCF would be incredibly less than the present cover price. They could supply—free—one of our top grandmasters each year to give us a simultaneous display; we might feel a little happier to sponsor Nigel Short next time he needs a second if he had just visited one of our clubs. They could send an observer to county AGMs. They could ... well, they (and you) can use their (your) imagination. National Chess Week; swindle of the month prize; Teenagers v. Old Stagers [you date yourself if you remember that!]; etc. Too expensive? An extra £1 on the registration fee would easily cover all the above; and I would be happy to pay it in return for really feeling that the BCF cared about me.

PUSHING PASSED PAWNS - An endgame study by Allan Richmond

I played in the Iswlyn Congress (Wales!) on 7/8 November and finished 2nd with 4/5. One of the major attractions of the play proved to be my third round game with Paul O'Neill (188). White's advantages are his advanced K and his quicker pawns whilst black has two more pawns and a better rook. 1 Rxg7 Rxc3 2 Rxf7 h4 3 Rh7 h3 followed by advancing the e pawn looked dangerous so I played 1 c4 g6 2 c5+ Ke7 (if 2 ... Kc7 3 Ra1 Kb7 4 Rf1 f5 5 Rg1 gives mating chances) 3 Kc6 h4 4 Rh1 (necessary to hold up the black pawns) 4....g5 5 b5 f5 6 b6 Rb2 (preventing Rb1). Both of us were now down to about 7 minutes to finish the game and we both blundered with 7 b7? f4? 8 Kc7 f3 9 c6 g4 (if 9....f2 10 Rf1) 10 b8=Q Rxb8 11 Kxb8 g3 12 c7 g2 13 Re1! f2 14 Rxe6+ Kxe6 15 c8=Q+ Kd5 16 Qf5+ 1-0. Note that taking the g pawn only draws e.g. 16 Qb7+ Kd4 17 Qxg2 Ke3 18 Qf1 h3 19 Kc7 h2 20 Kd6 h1=Q 21 Qxh1 Ke2 22 Qe4+ Kf1 23 Ke5 Kg1 24 Qg4+ Kh1 25 Qh3+ Kg1 26 Qg3+ Kh1 drawing.

So what should we have played on move seven? After 7 b7? g4! 8 Rxh4 g3 9 Rh1 f4 10 Rg1 e5 (10....Kd8 11 Rd1+ Ke7 12 Rg1 =) 11 Kd5! Rxb7 12 Kxe5 Rb4 13 Kf5 =. 7....g4 forces white to waste time with his rook and he would be lucky to salvage a draw. This gives us a clue to what I should have played on move 7. 7 Kb7! g4 8 c6 g3 9 c7 Rc2 Black has been forced to move his rook for a second time and white can now try to win with his Q & R. An Analysis of this ending will take too long but black may manage to survive with accurate play.

The lessons from this ending are really quite simple, push the pawns that force the opposing rook to waste time.

SUCCESS & DEFEAT for WEST BRIDGFORD

Last season West Bridgford reached the last eight of the National Club and were runners up in the Midland Club Competition. They began this season's campaign both with optimism and the hope of doing even better.

In the first round of the National Club they were drawn away to Poulton, a team from Blackpool. The match was played at a midway venue, Holmes Chapel in Cheshire, at the local Leisure Centre. West Bridgford easily out graded their opponents but the final score of 5.5 - 0.5 rather flattered them.

Poulton-le-Fylde	v	West Bridgford
1. D.G.Ellison(w)	0 - 1	P.A.Richmond
2. F.J.Howarth	.5 - .5	M.H.Barnes

4. A.Giles	0 - 1	R.J.Clunie
5. C.Overden	0 - 1	D.J.Nicholls
6. P.Isherwood	0 - 1	R.Higham
.5 - 5.5

In the second round, West Bridgford have a bye.

In the first round of the Midland Club Competition, West Bridgford were drawn away to Warwick University. Last season they beat the same opposition 3.5 - 2.5. This season however Warwick strengthened amongst others by Chris Dunworth, who the previous week had won the Notts County Championship, reversed that score although at the end Richard Edwards conceded a draw in a probably won position, the match being lost on board count in any event.

2. C.Dunworth	0 - 1	P.A.Richmond
3. S.Knight	0 - 1	P.D.Hare
4. M.Handley	1 - 0	M.H.Barnes
5. P.Cock	1 - 0	D.J.Nicholls
6. P.Burton	.5 - .5	H.R.Edwards

GAMES

The games section is not surprisingly dominated by the K v K match. I have included only the decisive games. Also featured is an entertaining game played by P. Kalugeroich (Gambit) at the Leicester Congress and a game from the County first team match against Northants by Andrew Walker including his analysis.

Notes (by the winner):

- c4 is the recommended move here, but not really my style. Incidentally, although this is one of the recommended ways of declining the Morra Gambit, I'm always pleased when opponents play d3. White gets most of the prospects of the Morra, without being a pawn down.
- Clear advantage to White, with a big lead in development and control of the important squares.
- Squandering it! A seductive but ill-considered move.
- Of course not ... Qxe5??; 15. Bc6ch, Nd7; 16. Qxe5 and the N is pinned.
- Perhaps better Rfd1 or Be3.
- If ... Rd8; 18. Nc4! with a slight advantage; if then 18. ... Bxf4; 19. Qxf4!
- Not Nd7??, Bxf4; 19. Qxe6ch??, Kh8. Nor what I intended on move 13, 18. Rxd6, Qxd6; 19. Ng6, e5; 20. Nxf8, exf! and wins.
- If now ... e5?; 19. Nxf3 wins. 19. Qd5ch is also good. 18. ... Rd8; is slightly better.
- Nxf8, Kxf8; 20. Qxh7 is 'interesting', but the zwischenzug 19. ... f5; 20. Qb4, Bg5! is better for black.
- Not ... Qxb2?; 24. Qc4ch, Kh8; 25. Nxc8, Rbxc8; 26. Qxc3 and wins.
- If in doubt (and time trouble), create luft.
- Forced.
- Qc3 also wins.
- No better is ... Rxd8; 35. Rxf6ch, Bg6; 36. Rxd8 threatening Rxf6ch and wins easily.

Position after 17. ... f6.

COUNTY FIRST TEAM RESULTS

The first of this season's matches was at home on 17 October when Northants were the visitors. The match turned out to be closer than expected and at one stage the Captain nearly required a glass of Phyllosan. In the end Notts won 12-8. The second match was again at home to Lincs. on 14 November. This again was a tougher proposition than anticipated but again Notts won 12-8.
